

BE FLOOD READY

Kenn Parish Flood Watch – keeping you up to date with flood news around Kenn Parish.

Kenn parish flood watch, a group of volunteers formed to coordinate community information about, and response to any flood emergency in the parish. The following links contain information to be best prepared in the event of major storm event warnings.

BeFloodReady lists information and tips on being prepared before emergency events occur. Follow this link.

(<https://www.befloodready.uk/about/>) pages

Floodline You can sign up for flood warnings and other information from the Government at the following link

(<https://www.gov.uk/sign-up-for-flood-warnings>).

Devon County Council is the lead Local authority(LLFA) as defined by the flood and water management Act 2010 the following link has numerous further links with useful information.

(<https://www.devon.gov.uk/floodriskmanagment/>)

The full Kenn Parish Emergency plan is available on this website, it is regularly reviewed and updated, please take time to read it through as part of your awareness of the help and actions the Council has in place to deal with adverse events not just flood related.